

Consignor Agreement

- > As consignor you will receive 40% of the selling price for items sold during the 60 day consignment period. Formals and select designer pieces may be consigned at a higher percentage rate: these items are to be determined by Prior Attire. Consignor's percentage split excludes the buyers fee.
- > Account balances are available for shopping in the store at anytime. You may choose to do a drop-off for TRADE ONLY. You will get credit for all items accepted, receive more per item, and you don't have to wait for items to sell! Upfront trade credits are calculated at 20%-50% of the full price of an item.
- > Payable account balances may be picked up at any time. Monies become payable 5 days after an item sells. Any of your items that are in a customer layaway will become payable 5 days after the layaway is paid in full. Unclaimed account balances are void after one year. Store credit will not be issued for voided balances. It is your responsibility as consignor to claim account balances. Checks are mailed upon request for a fee of $1.
- > Items are consigned for a 60-day period from drop-off date. Formals and select designer items may be consigned for longer periods determined by Prior Attire. To claim unsold items at the end of the 60 days, please call Prior Attire 48 hours in advance. A 50¢ pick-up fee per item pulled will be charged to account. Any unclaimed items after the 60 days become property of Prior Attire and may either be sold or donated.
- > Prior Attire is not responsible for damage or loss due to handling, fire, theft, or loss of any kind.
- > Prior Attire sets pricing on all items. Items are scheduled for a 30% price reduction once during your consignment period. Unscheduled price reductions may be given by store at anytime due to damage, demand, style, promotions, coupons, etc.
- > There is a $3 semi-annual fee charged to all accounts. Item prep fees will be charged to accounts for items not laundered, wrinkle-free, or on hangers upon arrival to store. Any items requiring storage till the appropriate selling season will be subject to a one-time storage fee per item.

Sometimes we accept items that we should not have due to damage, demand, style, fading, etc. If we find we have accepted one of your items that we should not have accepted for consignment, would you like us to CALL you to pick it up or would you like us to DONATE it to one of the local churches/charities. This refers to during the 60-day consignment period, not at the end of consignment period.

_____ (please answer DONATE or CALL)

I have read the above statements and agree to the terms of consigning with Prior Attire. I understand the terms of this agreement applies to today's drop-off as well as future drop-offs.
